

International
Symposium
on
New Techniques
and Applications
in Libraries

September 8 - 11, 1988

Xi'an

People's Republic of China

Second Circular

January 1988

International Symposium on New Techniques and Applications in Libraries

KEY SPEAKERS

Mrs. Margaret Beckman
Executive Director for Information,
University of Guelph
"Implications of Technology for New Library Facilities,"

Mr. Rowland C.W. Brown
President, OCLC Online Computer
Library Center
"Library Technology Applications and International Cooperation"

Dr. Ching-Chih Chen
Professor and Associate Dean, Simmons
College
"Libraries in the Information Age: New Technology, New Media, New Mission, and New Challenge" &
"Interactive Video Discs and the First
Emperor of China: A Case Presentation on PROJECT EMPEROR I's Qin Terracotta
Figures"

Mr. Donald E. Fossedal
Superintendent of Documents, U.S.G.P.O.
"Information to the People"

Ms. Bessie Hahn
Library Director, Brandeis University
"Book Preservation: An International Agenda"

Dr. Anne J. Mathews
Director, Library Programs, U.S. Dept. of Education

Dr. Joseph R. Matthews
Vice-President, INLEX
"Opportunities and Pitfalls of Library
Automation in the International Marketplace"

Mr. Thomas C. Phelps
Senior Program Officer, U. S. National Endowment for the Humanities
"The National Endowment for the Humanities Perspectives on PROJECT
EMPEROR-I's Qin Terracotta Figures"

Dr. Donald E. Riggs
University Librarian, Arizona State Univ.
"Expert Systems in Libraries"

Dr. Robert D. Stueart
Dean, Simmons College Graduate School of Library & Information Science
"Educating Information Professionals through Technology in the Curriculum"

Ms. Sally C. Tseng Dr. Calvin J. Boyer
Prin. Serials Cat. Univ. Librarian
University of California, Irvine, Library
"CD-ROM -- Compact Disc Read Only
Memory: An Information Handling Revolution"

Dr. Theodore Welch
Director of Libraries, Northern Illinois
University
"Participating in LCS: Northern Illinois
University Libraries in the Statewide
Library Computer System"