

HYPertext SHOWCASE

Highlighting the development of Hypertext and Hypermedia applications featuring

Dr. Ching-chih Chen, Professor and Associate Dean
Simmons College, Boston, MA

with her presentation and demonstration of PROJECT EMPEROR-I, a project using hypermedia technology and related to the First Emperor of China and his terracotta army of warriors and horses. The hypertext technology allows access to computerized text information in a nonlinear fashion.

Presented by

Information Services Division/ Administrative Services

April 12, 1990

Session 1 - 8:30 - 12:00 A.M.

Session 2 - 1:00 - 4:00 P.M.

ORNL, 4500N, Weinberg Auditorium

Session 1 Hypertext and Hypermedia Overview

Introduction, Paul Smith, Information Services Division

Dr. Jose-Marie Griffiths, University of Tennessee/ Martin Marietta Energy Systems, Inc. "Hypertext: Historical Developments/Future Perspective."

Dr. Ching-chih Chen, Simmons College, Boston, MA. "Hypermedia Information, Delivery and Technology Integration with Demonstrations on PROJECT EMPEROR-I."

Session 2 Hypertext Application at MMES

Introduction, Paul Smith, Information Services Division

Ms. Laura Bresko, ORNL Energy Division, Transportation Center. "HyperHelp: Creating Hypertext in a UNIX-Based System."

Dr. Barbara Handler, Martin Marietta Energy Systems, Data Systems Research and Development (DSRD). "Hypertext in Computer-Aided Instruction."

Dr. Ching-chih Chen. Hypertext Forum.